) No. 02-10
)

Pursuant to A.R.S. §25-381.04 and Administrative Order 92-10 of the presiding judge dated July 28, 1992, a Conciliation Court was established in Yuma County effective September 1, 1992. The presiding judge of the Yuma County Superior Court was and is designated as the presiding judge of the Conciliation Court, and each of the superior court judges was and is designated as a judge of the Conciliation Court for purposes of hearing individual cases assigned to that judge. Cases originating in or transferred to a judge of the Conciliation Court shall be assigned to an individual judge of the Conciliation Court in the same manner as domestic relations cases are assigned to the respective superior court judges.

A.R.S. §25-381.04 further provides that the presiding judge of superior court may designate at least one judge to hear all cases that arise under Title 25, Chapter 3, Article 7, referred to as "Court of Conciliation."

IT IS ORDERED that each of the judges of the Yuma County Superior Court judges is hereby designated a judge of the Conciliation Court for Superior Court in Yuma County.

DATED this 8th day of April, 2002.
